Congregational Meeting and Planning Session-This Sunday, June 25. The semi-annual congregational meeting will be in the sanctuary immediately following the morning service followed by lunch in the peace lounge and a congregational planning meeting led by the Long Range Planning Committee from 12-2 pm. As well, the Pastoral Relations Committee will conduct its first ever "Senior Minister Assessment" as a part of this planning and evaluation meeting. This survey will be filled out at the meeting by current, active members. Current, active members who are unable to attend the planning meeting may request an assessment from the church office . All assessments must be filled out and returned to

Peace and Justice Forum – Tuesday, June 27, 2017 – 7:00-8:30pm, Peace Lounge

Racism, Bigotry and Anti-Semitism: Then and Now

Presenter: Rabbi David Fine, Ph.D. Temple Israel, Ridgewood

Special Guest: Rev. Jan Philips, Ridgewood Friends Meeting and Community Relations Board of Ridgewood

How are racism, bigotry and anti-semitism impacting our communities and world today?

Discuss how to mobilize to confront these challenges and create more just and compassionate communities--- specifically, "what can congregations in our communities do in cooperation with others?" All are invited!

We will be joined for the discussion by Shaykh Moutaz Charaf, the Imam (leader) of the El-Zahra Islamic Center in Midland Park, his wife and members of the congregation (first time to visit Emmanuel) along with Rev. Mack Brandon, Pastor, Metropolitan AME Zion Church of Ridgewood. All are invited!

Preceded by Community Pasta Dinner, 6:00pm. Please reserve a space at 201-444-7300.

COMMUNITY PASTA DINNER is scheduled for June 27th, at 6 p.m. Please come and bring friends. It is nice to know attendance ahead of time in order to plan accordingly, so please call either the church office, 201-444-7300, or Marilyn, 201-391-
