We will be reading: "The Hijacking of Jesus: How this Religious Right Distorts Christianity and Promotes Prejudice and Hate."

Missions:

25 people traveled to Camp Lebanon on June 3rd for a picnic and tour led by the young people who have been campers there. Many expressed how beautiful the camp is. Thanks to the youth who helped

Our mission project for June will be to raise funds for "One Great Hour of Sharing". This offering is used by the ABCUSA World Relief Committee for projects both in the US and around the World. Offering envelopes will be in bulletin.

A mission trip for young people and adults is being considered for the summer of 2019. Pastor Lewis has expressed an interest in working with the Mission Committee on this project. A first step will be to explore the options available with our National and State Baptist organizations. Let the Mission Committee know if you would be interested in participating.

Food is needed to take to the Center for Food Action in May and to Ridgewood Social Services in June. Our food box is almost empty.

It has been determined that EBC has contributed over $8000 of the $10,000 pledged to "Cedars of Lebanon" by the end of 2019. Please pay your pledge if one was made or consider a donation to help support Camp Lebanon.

DAILY DEVOTION GUIDES: AN INVITATION
We are all invited to develop the practice of “daily devotions.” Some good resources used by our congregation are:

- Emmanuel Prayer List -revised and published weekly
- Living Well, designed for Lent; found on the table at the entrance to the sanctuary,
- Guideposts.org (stories of faith and hope),
- Secret Place or Upper Room (Bible verse, brief message & prayer in magazine format and on-line),
- Sacred Space 2018 (daily prayer for one year, book & online)

Pastor Ken and Connie Gill, Pastor Judy and Don and others use Richard Rohr’s, A Spring Within You- Daily Meditations. You are invited to join us reading in your own home following the schedule below. If you want to try it out, please speak to one of us. Copies are available from Jo Marie in the church office or one of us.
